L119: Give a Home to Dakota: The Rescue Puppy Who Just Wants to Be Loved - One Year of Essential Puppy Vet Care Included!

Donated by: Sarah and Tyson Knudsen, Union Vet/Linsey Dilbeck, Bark N Snip, and Urban Canine

Value: Priceless

Looking for a new furry friend? Check out this adorable puppy rescued by Sarah and Tyson Knudsen! Here's his story, "My name is Dakota, and I'm a dog with a story to tell. I was one of three puppies found dumped on an oil well pad in North Dakota, where my rescuer, Tyson, works. He brought me home and on March 3rd, I saw a vet for the first time. They gave me a clean bill of health and my first round of vaccines and guessed that I was between 3 and 4 months old and most likely a black lab/heeler mix.

Since then, I've had two more rounds of dewormer, and my records are at the Deer Park Vet Clinic under Tyson's name. When I first arrived at my new home, I had pretty severe separation anxiety, but it's getting better as I get used to my surroundings.

My family describes me as a good boy, mellow and submissive, but still a typical puppy who loves to jump and chew. However, I've learned that a tired puppy is a good puppy, and I love following my people around and cuddling with them. I've been crate trained and know the command "go to bed." I'm also learning basic obedience commands like "sit," "down," "off," and "drop it." I'm expected to sit and stay when being fed, and I'm about 90% housetrained, but I still need to be watched closely.

Since I got a late start on vaccines, I haven't started any training outside the home yet, and I need more socialization. But my family says that I have the potential to be an amazing family dog. I'm a quick and eager learner, and I have one ear that does a really cute flop! If you're looking for a sweet, loving dog who will be your loyal companion, I'm your guy. I hope I find my perfect match soon!

If you bid on me, you'll receive one year of free vet services from Linsey Dilbeck at Union Vet. That includes all of the important stuff like vaccines, deworming, and an initial wellness exam. Plus, you'll get a spay or neuter, microchipping, and fecal testing until I reach 12 months old. That's a lot of free care, and it will ensure that I stay healthy and happy for years to come!

And that's not all. You'll also get some super fun toys, food, and yummy treats to spoil me with, plus a $50 grooming certificate to Bark n Snip. I can't wait to get pampered and play with all of my new toys!

All of these goodies will help make my transition into my new forever home even smoother. I'm a sweet and loving pup who just wants to be part of a loving family. With your help, I'll get all the care and attention I need to thrive. So please consider bidding on me, and let's start our together filled with love and care!"
