

Field Day!

After taking the PSAT and enjoying an Oktoberfest lunch, Middle and Upper School students lived out the theme of well-being by competing in “Field Day” activities across campus on the afternoon of October 11th.

Blue Team comes up to bat for a game of “Chaos Ball”

Crossing the gym floor was their “Mission Impossible”

“What I hoped to accomplish with Field Day was to create a fun and competitive environment for our middle and upper school community members to work and play together. The afternoon was a success quite simply because of those people who showed up and brought amazing energy. The students, faculty, and staff who were present created the proper vibe to ensure a great afternoon of games!”

- Mark Rickard, Upper School Dean of Student Life

The Pink Team stood out for their colorful cheers

Lofting a beach ball over the net in Metters for "Parachute Volleyball"

"Mark Rickard organized an amazing Field Day afternoon, where teams of Middle and Upper School students combined to compete in eight different challenges throughout the campus. It is a fantastic tradition and truly took a communal effort to pull off."

- Nathan Lill, Head of Upper School

"Scooter Hockey" filled the Little Gym with noisy activity

On the Web

Scan this QR Code to see more Field Day photos.

"Human Spelling" on Graduation Lawn required flexibility

"The Middle School students might feel a bit intimidated by the Upper School students at first, but they really become a team when playing these unique field games. The older students jump into the role of mentors and cheerleaders for the younger students."

- Joelle Neiwert, Head of Middle School

"Trivial Kahoot" got the teams thinking about the right answers